Clearance Sale of Standard Books in Sets.

WO weeks ago we sold nearly all of the left-over sets we advertised. To close out the few remaining sets we offer them at very low prices.

This is a splendid opportunity for booklovers to start a library or add valuable editions to their present collection. Some of them show slight marks of handling or are a bit shopworn; others just have the boxes broken. They are all desirable, and at the new prices are rare

BAND KING COMING.

John Philip Sousa and his band, announced for the coming Sunday evening at the New National, will appear in Washington after an absence of several seasons. There is a great deal that is wholesome and informing, and also truly genial, about Sousa and his concerts-a fact that Europe as well as America has eknowledged. The "March King's" sin-terity in providing for the public the argest measure of real enjoyment pos-Wedding Invitations sible within the confines of usual hours is always apparent. The programme to be given here next Sunday is one of comnanding character. The overture is Westmeyer's "Kaiser," a work quite well known. Following, for the full orchestra, are Sousa's suite, "The Last Days of Pompeii;" a notable number of Richard Strauss' "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks," a tone picture from a country market scene; the entire Grieg "Peer Gynt" suite; a Dvorak "Humo esque," and, most important of all, "Ride of the Valkyries," from "Die Walkure," Wagner. In all of this there is certainly orchestration enough to suit the most xacting for one evening. The soloists of the evening are by no means relegated to the shadows in the matter of important numbers. Mr. Herbert L. Clarke will present a new work by himself, "Rondo Caprice:" Miss Lucy Allen soprano, will sing Meyerbeer's principal "Roberta" aria, and Miss Jeannette Powers, violinist, will play Caprice's "Slav," by

MUST GO TO PRISON

Verdict Against Captain of Slocum Approved.

BLAMED FOR LOSS OF LIFE

Aged Seaman Guilty of Criminal Negligence, and Must Serve Ten Years in Sing Sing-Prisoner Over Seventy Years of Age-East River Disaster Recalled-Judge's Charge.

New York, Feb. 12 .- The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Judges Lecombe, Coxe, and Ward sitting, affirmed to-day the decision of the Circuit Court, holding William Van Schaick, captain of the illfated excursion steamer General Slocum, guilty of criminal negligence on the occasion of the burning of the steamer in the East River near Astoria on June 15, 1904, when over 1,000 lives were lost, mostly women and children

Capt. Van Schaick was found guilty in the Circuit Court on January 27, 1996, and the same day was sentenced to ten years in Sing Sing. He was subsequenty released on $10,000 bail, pending the appeal to the higher court.

The opinion just handed down is written by Judge Coxe. He takes in turn the various items of defense interposed by the defendant's counsel and finds him guilty of failure to make use of whatever safeguards to life were available and to perform the duties prescribed by law. Disipline, says the court, was defective ife-preservers were useless, and emphasis s given to the fact that the officers and rew were all saved while the 1.000 women and children perished.

Government Charges. The government, says the court, had three propositions to prove: First, that he defendant was captain of the Slocum; second, that he was guilty of misconduct, and third, that by reason of the miscon duct and negligence, human life was lost. Intent, declares the opinion, is not an ment of the offense, malice need not be proved, and it is unnecessary to show hat the acts or omissions causing loss of life were willful or intentional, The fact that the government inspec tors had issued a certificate that the poat was fit for service for a year from May 6, 1904, is not relevant, and that the fact remains that nothing was done to prevent the spread of the flames or in ny way to mitigate the disaster whene burning boat was being run to Nor Brother Island to be beached. The statement of the defense that the crew was nade up of raw material and being contantly changed is not tenable, because says the court, it would be to sanctio The health and mortality report of the the theory that the more ignorant the nealth department for the week ended crew, the less need there was to instruc-Judge Finds No Error
